How does a virus begin to infest itself on a computer system ?

VIRUS ALERT

* The most common virus freeloaders come in e-mail attachments. Always know who the sender is and take caution.

* Another common virus area is through downloads. If you come across something on the Internet that you think you just have to download, make sure it is from a reliable source.

* Never really click on any popups. They are usually infested with nasty things and you should always just exit out of those popups to keep your system safe.

* Another cause of viruses is network sharing. If you're on a network and you have everything set up to share with other users, you're leaving yourself wide open for some threats. If another user receives a virus, there really isn't anything to stop it from coming onto your computer.

* As always, make sure you have some sort of antivirus protection software on your computer and run your scans frequently. If you don't, you never know what sort of trouble could make its way into your life.

ASG always recommends and installs McAfee Anti Virus. If you suspect your computer has a virus, please give ASG a call today at 203-265-1443 for more information.

TODAY'S BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

MANAGED SERVICES by ASG Information Technologies

Your business depends on your network's availability, performance, and security—and your software is business-critical.

The five most common frustrations:

- E-mail / Work Order delivery systems down
- Client database unavailable
- Spyware and unauthorized access issue
- Banned software (games and file-sharing) monopolizing resources
- Predictable hardware failures

Managed Services from ASG Information Technologies provides an affordable solution to these problems.

What are “Managed Services”?

Managed Services means that ASG Information Technologies will remotely monitor all of your IP devices such as servers, workstations, applications, firewalls, routers, and other network devices. The OnSite Manager will send ASG and you, the client, alerts for immediate attention and speedy resolution. The Managed Services also features:

Scheduled site/device reporting — a bird's eye view into the real performance of your IT infrastructure.

Perspective into what equipment and software has been installed, and where current or new system resources can be best allocated.

The ability to forecast failures before they occur, such as a critical server running out of hard drive space.

Key Benefits of Managed Workplace

- Significant decrease in downtime
- Improved network and hardware performance
- Fewer 'growing pains' via network capacity management
- Lower costs and increased efficiency via resource reallocation
- Protection against security breaches
- Visits from your IT service provider are more productive and less intrusive
- Increased employee productivity by automating routine administrative functions
